People Career Choices

Are there any deciding factors in career choices?

Well YES!
There are so many factors which influence the future career choice and have the effect on different levels.

Deciding factors!

Extrinsic factors

*financial remuneration
*professional prestige
*Job Accessibility
*Job Security

Intrinsic factors

*Personal Interests
*Life goal
*Self-Efficacy
*outcome expectations

Interpersonal factors

*Influence of family members
*Teachers and Educators
*Peer Influence
*Social Responsibilities

psychology factors

*Negative thought
*Risk
*Shyness

How Psychology factors affects!

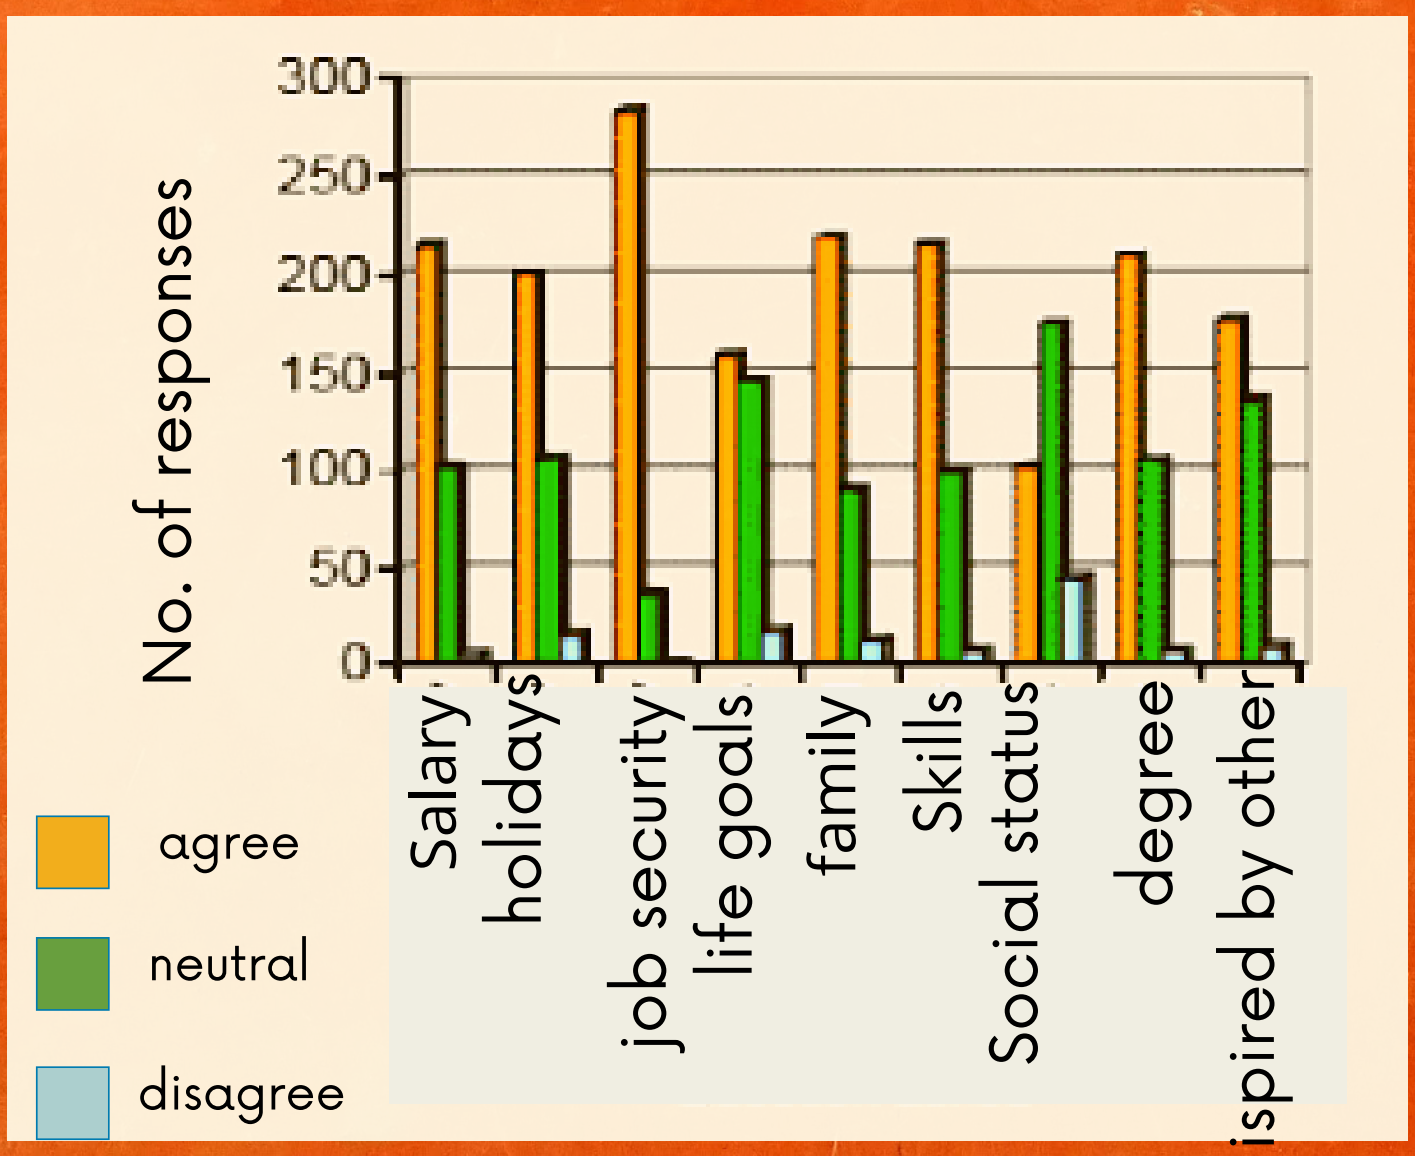
Assume,
if everyone else is buying something, there is a good chance that the item is also worthy for us and eventually grasp our attention.

Key considerations that influence career choice



After analysing the dataset individual tend toward majorly his/her cultural beliefs and practices, security and on parental influences.

Clarifying your career goals definitely result in immediate as well as long-term gain.

Completing a college degree is access to 60% chances of higher paying, and more prestigious careers.

2015 surveys shows,men and women(1:1) are equally conscious about career choices.

Parental influences were found to be significant in collectivist cultural settings irrespective of gender.